BUDGET BILLING PLAN

Do you live on a fixed or limited income, or would knowing how much your water bill will be make your life easier? We are happy to announce our new Budget Billing Plan that will let you average your yearly bills and build up a credit to help pay those high summer water bills.

When you sign up for the Budget Billing Plan, we will continue to read your water meter each month. But, instead of billing for your actual usage you will get a bill for the budgeted amount which is calculated using your previous year's water usage.

Then, each September, we will send you a "catch up" bill. If you have used less water than predicted you will have a credit balance. If you have used more water than predicted you will have a balance owing. The balance will be added to the next year's budget calculations and your monthly payment will be adjusted accordingly.
